

WILSON
&
COBB.

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT 1899.

WILSON
&
COBB.

WE ADVERTISE
FACTS

AND FACTS ONLY.

Most stores when they advertise heavy "claim" to offer "phenomenal bargains," values that look (in the paper) beyond all reason and precedent, but as a rule these "bargains" prove fakes. We don't believe it pays to fool people. Our business has been built upon the platform of HONEST GOODS, HONEST PRICES and HONEST ADVERTISING, and we'll stick to it forever. In this advertisement we quote prices, and will leave it to your own good judgement whether they are bargains or not. We've got the goods we advertise in the store, and you can make an examination before you buy. Our stock of Spring and Summer Goods for 1899 is simply immense, and it will pay you to look it over before you do your Spring and Summer shopping.

OUR AIM

Is to please our customers by giving them the best values for their money.

Make Your Own
SHIRT WAISTS

We Have the Material . . .

All the Latest Fabrics
in Style, Color and Designs at from 5¢ to 20¢
per yard.

FINE LINE OF
UP-TO-DATE
Hats and Caps

SWELL
NOBBY STYLES.

LADIES'
VESTS

For Spring and Summer
wear, heavy medium and light weight goods, knit in the latest styles.

HANDKERCHIEFS
We Have a Magnificent Selection.

Running from the cheapest
Cotton grades to the finest
Silks. They range in price from

2½ CENTS
TO 50 CENTS.

WE PAY THE HIGHEST PRICE IN TRADE FOR CHICKENS AND COUNTRY PRODUCE.

GROCERIES.

Here are some money saving
prices on staples:

Granulated Sugar, 17 lbs for $1.
Best Light Brown Sugar, 20 lbs.
for $1.

Best Meat, from 6¢ to 7½ per lb.
1 lb can of Baking Powder, 5¢.
Good Rice, 5¢ per lb.

Northern New York Early Rose
Potatoes, $1.10 per bushel.
Buranks, $1.10.
H. brown, $1.10.
Best Wash Soap, 3 bars for 5¢.
Best Peaches, 2 cans for 25¢.
Best Soda, 2 lbs, 5¢.

These are just samples of the low prices all through this Department.

A Dressy Man

Will always be appreciated more than one who is slovenly. We have paved the way for all men in moderate circumstances to "dress in the best."

Men's Suits

$4.00 and up.

Boys' and Youths' Suits

$1.25 and up.

Men's Best Cottonade Pants

38c.

Men's Double Front Overalls

50c.

We have made arrangements with one of the best tailoring firms in America to make tailor made suits for our customers to make the same price as we make clothing usually cost. Try the best and Spring and Summer 1899 styles.

A Few Bargains.

You have had experience enough in buying to know whether these are bargain prices or not.

How do these suit you?

General line of Calicos at

4¢ per yard
Good Sheeting, 6¢ per yard

Best New York Camlet,

10¢ per yard
Domestic, 3 1/2¢ per yard

Quilt Lining, 3¢ per yard

A Good Alarm Clock, 80¢

Good Eight-Day Clock, $2.25

TREAT YOUR FEET

To a pleasant surprise. Buy them a pair of stylish, comfortable shoes, in either Box Calf, Willow Calf, or Vici. They are a perfect line of "wearers" and "fitters."

FROM $1.00 AND UP.

LADIES' SHOES $1.00 AND UPWARD.

Children's Shoes from 25¢ up.

Men's, Ladies' and Children's Slippers at your own prices.

Tinware, Queensware, Glassware.

You will find this department thoroughly stocked and the values unparalleled. Here is a foretaste of what you can expect:

6-quart Bucket, 10c.

4-quart Bucket, 8c.

2-quart Bucket, 5c.

1-pint Cups, 4 for 5c.

1-gallon Pails, 2 for 5c.

Half-gallon Cups, 5c.

1-gallon Glass Oil Can, 20c.

Best Dish Pans, 10c to 25c.

Glass Dippers, 10c.

Best Tin Sifters, 10c.

You know yourself that these prices are bed rock, and that they are money saving values.

ASK
'EM.

Ask any of our patrons what kind of service they get at our store; ask 'em if we don't save them money; ask 'em about the quality too. They can tell as much as we can.

They've tried us and are our permanent customers. Stranger, you'd be too if you'll ask 'em. A dollar goes farther at our store than at any other place. The values are away down and the quality away up.

Spring House-cleaning

Will convince you that you need new Furniture.
See our line. It's great.

Bedsteads, $1 and up.
Tab'e Stands, 75c. up.
All kinds of Chairs.

Examine those Plush Couches

Stoves!

from $6 to $11 complete. They are the best made.

See the Handsome
Lamps
we are Selling

At Prices
that make them
Dirt
Cheap.

HARDWARE ! Do you want Hardware? Look at our line.
We've got everything in shelf and building hardware.

Saddlery and Harness.

Workmanship and material guaranteed. Prices are lower than those quoted by city dealers.

Coffins and Caskets.

We can fill orders for Coffins and Caskets of every description at all hours of the day or night.
We carry a full line of

SHROUDS.

Colored Dress Goods FOR SPRING AND SUMMER.

High and Low, High in Quality and Low in Price. A department full of elegant, quick selling, up-to-date styles.

Best Wash Lawns, 50¢ per yard

Organidies, from 7½¢ to 20¢ per yard

Percalies, the most stylish weaves, representing the very latest shades and colors, 7½ to 12½¢ per yard

India Linen, from 5¢ to 15¢ per yard.

Woolen Dress Goods of Every Description.

Ladies, you must see this line.

Elegant Line of Ducking.

Woman! Lovely Woman!

You will find in our Millinery Department a stock of Bonnets, Hats and Ornaments that will enhance your charms.

Exquisite spring and summer creations, all styles and prices.
Come and see them.

Spring Underwear.

This is the season to change
your heavy winter Underwear
to a medium weight suit.

WE HAVE A FINE
ASSORTMENT AT LOWEST PRICES.

CORSETS!

Every Description
and Size.

PRICES TO SUIT
THE PURSE.

SUSPENDERS

For Everybody!

SHIRTS!

A fancy line for Youths and Men. Prices range from

25c. to $1.00.

A Wet Weather Friend !

When you need an Umbrella you need
it bad.

PRICES TO SUIT YOU.

SPRING
ANNOUNCEMENT !
1899.

WILSON & COBB,
McQUADY, KENTUCKY.

SPRING
ANNOUNCEMENT !
1899.

Doctor Your Soil

With Fertilisers bought of
W. C. Moorman.

Has your Farm that Tired Feeling?

Is it all run down? Is the soil too weak to raise a crop? Does it need toning up? . . .

IF SO, USE COMMERCIAL FERTILIZERS

with plenty of ammonia, nitrogen, and protein-making ingredients in it. It is the best medicine you can give. . . .

W. C. Moorman, Glendale.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Mr. D. & V. G. Dabbs, Editors and Proprietors

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1889.

EIGHT PAGES.

CARDS OF THANKS sent by those charged for the services of 10 cents per line.
OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line.
MONEY IN ADVANCE.

WONDER if the alias "Looeenville's" will fit the colonel this year!

ADMIRAL DEWY CALLS to the war department that "things are quiet in Gras." Sing the doxology, please.

"I live as it may sound," says Governor, "I agree, the trusts will divide the people of this country into sharply defined classes—masters and slaves."

TODAY Fortville Miscellany is a new paper, that has been started at Fortville in Oldham county. It is a newly well edited sheet and certainly deserves success.

This boy in Daviess county tried hard to smoke Wat out, but they didn't succeed. Pass him on to the next county.—One whose Messenger.

Ur is an "amazing" as well as an egotistical crew. It is real refreshing to hear him refer to himself as "the boy."

THE METHODIST MINISTER.

Two meetings of the Greenback District conference of the Methodist church at Fortville, today, will give the good people of that little town a splendid opportunity to get acquainted with that magnificient fellow, the Methodist minister.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment. He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister has only one enemy in the world, and that is "Old Scrooge Foot." The Methodist minister is a man, every inch of him. He's got rich, red blood and plenty of muscle. He's not the fellow to temporize with his enemies, and when he goes after Old Scrooge, it's over the top. Let him prove that in the end old Scrooge will be vanquished, and the victory will rest, in a large measure, with the Methodist minister.

The nature of his calling makes the Methodist minister an ideal man. The Methodist minister is a man who loves his kingdom, wears him from within, ambitions and consecrates him to a work whose reward is final. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," a command which entitles him to a place high above that of angel, cherubim or seraphim in the celestial kingdom.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

Discovered By A Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in the city of New York. She has discovered upon her and seven years past, who withstood its severest test, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recover, and that was to go to New Mexico. Her doctor advised a complete rest, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and two bottles have been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Louis Tissier.

TODAY W. C. Henwick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Short & Haynes Drug Store. Regular size $1 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity, Guide, Philosopher and Friend, that adapts him to his noble calling, and fits him to win for his Master the affections of men.

TODAY the Methodists have their new pastor in their midst. Their welcome to him should be warm and eloquent of appreciation of his noble qualities. Throughout the corporate limits of the city should be heard the squaking of the spring chick as it is pecked at the feed trough. When he arrives at the threshold of the home of thyme and parsley, of roast turkey and cranberry sauce, of delicious jellies and preserves should greet his nostrils like sweet incense.

The Methodist minister is no prodigal son, but he deserves the fated calf nevertheless.

A COMPLIMENT.

Gus Richardson Gets a Fine Bouquet Thrown at Him.

We are pleased to note the nomination of Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county, for state treasurer of Kentucky, subject to Democratic approval. We have known him for many years past, and send with him on the State Central Committee a few years ago, and we can testify that he is a trustworthy gentleman and a true Democrat. As a member of the State Central Committee he proved fearless in every struggle against the rule and stood up for the right interests of the people.

The machinations of the smooth politicians who sought to use the committee for their personal ends. We observed him closely on several trying occasions and found him steady as a clock for the right. Two years ago he made a strong speech in favor of the miners, and was one of the last to go down before the invincible forces of Standard.

We believe that the Democrats of Kentucky will do the right thing when they nominate Gus Richardson for state treasurer, for he will strengthen the ticket, and if elected will make an admirable official.—Clinton Standard.

They will find him the sum total of human perfection. He is a man gilded with a good appetite and a clean conscience. He possesses a physique that, however frail, is strong enough to undergo any of the fatigues that attend circuit riding or the filling of an appointment.

He has the gentleness of the dove and the strength of the lion.

The Methodist minister, like the Master, is thorough, determined. He has a great, big, generous heart that throbs in sympathy for all mankind. It is large enough to take in all the sorrow and all the joy of the world. Have you ever experienced the pleasure of shaking hands with a Methodist minister? Of course you have. The honest grip of a strong right hand, the quick firm pressure, caused an electric thrill to go through your whole being. You felt the magnetism of the man. The wealth of emotion that ranged from his impulsive noble heart was communicated to you in that hand shake, and by that mystic sign, a Masonry peculiar to itself, you recognized in him the "salt of the earth, oil and water."

There is no man that is friendless so long as a Methodist minister is left alive. His own life of privation and self-sacrifice endows the minister with a quick sympathy, with a fraternal love that makes his heart bleed for the poor that are crucified upon the cross of poverty, or for the rich that have turned the spears of the world and the flesh."

The Methodist minister exemplifies in his personality that trinity

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Every Sufferer from Lung Weakness, Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh or Bronchitis Can Be Cured.

Complete FREE Course of Treatment consisting of Four Preparations - The Slocum System -

Nearly everybody you meet will regard it as a kind of insult to be asked if they have weak lungs. All seem to think that it is a mark of weakness to confess their own breathing machine. In cases of trouble they will admit there is a "heavy cold," or a "spell of asthma," but as to weak or unsound lungs, never, NEVER.

Even the poor consumptive, who has spent his life in bed, and whose checks are wasted, hollow and bear the heat of flesh, of whom we hear so much, will be all right when the weather changes.

It is natural to think how far we may be guilty by our indifference to the lung troubles of those near and dear to us. It is also natural to feel that we may hug a delusion as to our own health, that we only get rid of it when we die.

Nobody can afford to think lightly of lung troubles. Nobody can afford to be misinformed about them. Nobody can afford to neglect them, or "let them wear out," or "get better in the spring," or "wait until the winter comes." They are too weak and ruin.

Lung troubles do not move backward. Weak lungs do not grow strong again. They must heal them and strengthen them, and rid them of the very earliest germs of disease, or they will only continue a form of parasite.

Either you cure your

A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF HARDSINGBURG.

We are not called upon to speak all that we know. That would be folly. But a man says about what he thinks, otherwise it is knavery. No wrong is ever made better but always worse by a fall—when even detection is not followed, suspicion is always created. Wrong is a fall—when put into practice. The Chinese have a proverb which says, "A lie has legs and cannot stand, but this wings and can fly far and wide." You never can unite, though you try ever so hard, the antagonistic elements of truth and falsehood. The man who forgoes a great deal that has happened is a better memory than he who remembers a great deal that has not happened. There is a great sometimes to distinguish between jealousy and envy; for they often run into one another and are blended together. Envy is the envious of its neighbors, or the efforts of its neighbors, not so much by increasing our own toll and interest in the success of others, as by doing the same to others. It tends to separate itself by the degradation of others.

Evy is so cruel in its parent that when once hounded on, it rests not till the grave closes over its victim. Honors bestowed upon the illustrious have been in them no miniature of envy, but these are the most envied of all. Honors have ministered free from envy, though the fact is to be deeply lamented, it is unfortunately true that such is the perversion of the human heart, that oftentimes the only reward of those whose merits have raised them above the common level is the envy of their neighbors and their competitors. Envy is a weed that grows in all soils and climates and is less luxuriant in the country than in the city. It is not confined to any rank of men or extent of fortune but rages in the bosom of those of every degree, from a sparrow in the hedge to the wife of a king in the grandeur of her courtiers.

Envy is a pestilence that defaces equal to a serpent's bite, and it is the curse of the world. Their abominable new methods and horrid dealing commend them to all. Let me here mention S. A. Peat, of the liver business. In the salaried of your pretty town stands the cemetery, that silent city of the dead. The last resting place of some of Hardinsburg's sons of Bed, Beard, and Peat, etc., etc. Mr. Marshall.

On the eve of the new year, he and his son, Mr. Marshall, Jr., were engaged in a social gathering at the residence of Mr. Bell, a prominent citizen. They had a good time, and the party was dissolved at a late hour. The host, Mr. Bell, was a man of great wealth and influence, and was well known throughout the city. He was a man of great energy and determination, and was a favorite with the people. He was a man of great wealth and influence, and was well known throughout the city. He was a man of great energy and determination, and was a favorite with the people.

Respectfully Yours,

E. E. GLASSCOCK.

MYSTERIOUS PENNY.

It Turns Up Missing in a Simple Transaction.

The Puzzle Is, Where Has The Penny Gone to?

This is one of Emil Nolte's deep problems.

Two hucksters go to market, each having 50 apples to sell.

Mrs. A. intends selling hers at the rate of two for a penny.

Mrs. B. sells hers at the rate of 3 for a penny.

Before the opening of the market Mrs. B. says to Mrs. A.: I am obliged to go away, will you be kind enough to sell my apples along with yours?

To which her friend says: "Sure I will, and as you are selling yours 2 for a penny, I will give two for a penny." She will then throw all together and give five for two cents which will be the same thing.

When Mrs. B. returned she was pleased to find that all of the apples were disposed of. Mrs. A. proceeded to divide the proceeds. So she said to her: "I sold 30 apples at 2 for 2. There was 50 apples so all I got for 2. That is 50 minus 30 is 20."

As I sold 30 at 2 for a cent, I get 30c of the total sum. And there is a balance of 50 cents for you."

"NO," says Mrs. R. "I had 30 apples at 2 for a cent. I should get 10c."

In spite of all their arguments, the mysterious penny is still missing and they are forced to own their inability to account for it.

Now where has that penny gone?

LOVE.

(Read in numerous news.)

Alas! we eat, just and I,

And eat the day and night brew a

Die bright gray. Into her eyes looked,

A face like mine.

Oh! how the sharp heart aches suffered,

Longing, doubting, died w/ fear,

When I saw more than measured,

Die bright gray. Into her eyes looked,

A face like mine.

As few as loved a maid,

You loving not, my life is done,

For love of you, my heart is gone.

"Forget her who let her be and said,

And with a start she spoke again,

"Are you in earnest?" Dropped her head,

As if she had been struck by death.

Oh! such a pain in the heart,

Came, "Yours like mine was the worst,

Though so ten times, yet was clear,

The above poem was sent us by an anonymous contributor. The "no" is realistic enough to prove that the author or authoress has "been there."

Delay only makes your trouble worse.

SERMON ON LYING.

We are not called upon to speak all that we know. That would be folly.

But a man says about what he thinks, otherwise it is knavery. No wrong is ever made better but always worse by a fall—when even detection is not followed, suspicion is always created.

Wrong is a fall—when put into practice.

The Chinese have a proverb which says, "A lie has legs and cannot stand,

but this wings and can fly far and wide."

You never can unite, though you try ever so hard, the antagonistic elements of truth and falsehood.

The man who forgoes a great deal that has happened is a better memory than he who remembers a great deal that has not happened.

It is natural to think how far we may be guilty by our indifference to the lung troubles of those near and dear to us. It is also natural to feel that we may hug a delusion as to our own health, that we only get rid of it when we die.

Nobody can afford to think lightly of lung troubles. Nobody can afford to be misinformed about them. Nobody can afford to neglect them, or "let them wear out," or "get better in the spring," or "wait until the winter comes." They are too weak and ruin.

Lung troubles do not move backward.

Weak lungs do not grow strong again.

They must heal them and strengthen them, and rid them of the very earliest germs of disease, or they will only continue a form of parasite.

Either you cure your

or you die.

Mr. Ernest Henderson purchased a nice lot of hogs from Mr. Stinson this week.

Mr. J. T. Mitcham was at home last Sunday. Jim always gives Old Dog Wags a call.

Mr. Sidney Johnson was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Mary Whitworth, Saturday evening.

Mr. Martha Priest, who has been so poor for sometime we are glad to see able to come out again.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old Liberty the second Sunday in May. All come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

Master Fred Lyons on last Tuesday, the

little lassie.

Hamp McLean is preparing to leave the

struggling team, was advised he should have encouragement.

Rev. Chas. P. West will preach at Old

Liberty the second Sunday in May. All

come out for I know you will not regret it.

A birthday supper given in honor of

SICKNESS WILL DISAPPEAR AND

HEALTH

WILL BRIGHTEN WOMAN'S LIFE
IF SHE USES

Dr. Pierce's

FAVORITE

Prescription

IN ALL CASES OF FEMALE WEAKNESS..

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1899

IRVINGTON.

Mr. Redmen's mother, Mrs. Smith, of New York, Friday evening.

Prof. Engle's lecture at the college next Saturday p. m. at 8 o'clock.

Bring your boys to see "Heat of Cuba" at the college next Saturday p. m.

Mr. Brantley is home again from a long trip.

Mr. Still has been quite ill. His condition is improved, but he is not yet well.

Mr. Musgrave, a former reader, was in town Saturday evening and Sunday, paying a visit.

Mr. N. W. Frank are pleased to announce their intention to get married and to have a short stay at a lairage.

Mr. Miller Lockard, who has recently become quite ill, much improved we are glad to report.

Mr. E. H. Heath, a young man from Louisville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adkinson.

Mr. Adkinson who has had a recent severe attack of grippe, is glad to know it is better.

See those beautiful Canna effects, the greatest, — Miss Judith Miller's, Clarendon.

Miss Partridge had a delightful little visit to Mrs. Carrigan at Glendale.

Frayer meeting at both churches Wednesday and Thursday p. m. 7:30 o'clock. All will find welcome there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Avitt are once more with us. At Mr. and Mrs. Elizabethtown Sunday.

Dr. Strother went to Louisville last Sunday. Dr. J. W. Martin was at Versailles last Sunday calling on Miss Carlton.

Rev. Garrett, of Louisville, preached here at the Baptist church Sunday.

Miss Z. Anna Strother after several hours in Louisville returned home Tuesday.

The roads are drying fast and it won't be long until we wear the coat again.

Mr. Penick, representing Water A. Wood Harvesting Company, spent Sunday here at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hause visited their sister, Mrs. Hagan, of Nitlowton, last Saturday and Sunday.

Irvington is a busy town these days. What with our progressive merchants

Remember, Good Friends, Remember

WE ARE STILL SELLING the famous CRES-CENT WHEELS, Chain and Chainless, '99 Models on easy payments.

BICYCLISTS

Should also remember we have just got in an entirely new line of Sundries that enables us to REPLACE ANY PART OF A WHEEL, Tires, Spokes, Rims, Everything.

REMEMBER we make a specialty of the Repairing Department, and Guarantee All Work to be the Best that Skill and Good Material can produce.

THE PUBLIC SHOULD REMEMBER

That in the

FURNITURE LINE

WE CANNOT BE UNDER SOLD so far as prices are concerned, and that our stock is the most varied in this section. COTS FROM $1.25 TO $2.50. In Bed and Dining Room Furniture, Chairs, Rockers, Side-Boards and Tables we have the Best Stock ever shown in this city.

CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES—We call your attention to the fact that we have just received a New Line of Children's Buggies which we sell at prices to suit the purse.

On Refrigerators and Other Goods in Our Line that we do not carry in stock we make a Special Order and sell them to You at MONEY-SAVING PRICES.

M. HAMMAN & SON, - CLOVERPORT, KY.

who show a full and complete stock of goods, the basis of the saw, and noise of the hammer, the coming and going of the wheelbarrow, the sound of the plow, the importance of a live, wide awake town.

Bro. Leitchfield will preach again in the Methodist church this Friday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock, and Sunday evening, 7:30. Don't forget the appointment.

Next Friday afternoon the College Class will give an open meeting to patrons and friends. All cordially invited. A good program has been arranged for the entertainment. Come and be sure, will entertain you gratifyingly. Go.

Prof. H. K. Taylor will give a lecture on "The Heat of Cuba," next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. He will be accompanied with a number of stereopticon views, w. h. an interesting and instructive entertainment. Come and bring somebody else with you. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Dr. O'Brien has purchased the Methodist church building and site, and his family here. Dr. O'Brien comes for the purpose of educating his children. The church is a fine building, superior and it is a move in the right direction when people come for such a purpose.

Bro. Leitchfield, with his metropolitan garnet, was at us again Saturday evening giving excellent sermons. His sermon on "Patriotism," certainly must be an incentive to all, and particularly to the young where an extra emphasis is given to the words of gold before our young people, to inspire clear for the dimes of life.

Prof. Taylor, on his return trip to Cuba, considered the hard idea of giving to others what would be most helpful, in a knowledge of Cuba. With this in mind, he has decided to publish the more important features of that country and will give the benefit of it to all. There is no doubt that there is an opportunity all who can should see and especially so the younger set. Try the W. F. M. Society will have its regular monthly meeting next Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock. The members will please come and contribute to the cause, the business can be attended to and members get home early, which fast home-keepers will appreciate.

The election of officers will be made at this meeting, so it is important to all to try and be present in force to come. These meetings are open to the public and we will cheerfully greet any who will come. I am sure they will be glad to hear that "It is good to have them here."

The opening session of the Philanthropic Society will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the college chapel, with the following program:

Adrianne —
Edwin Poole —
E. V. Farnham —
F. L. Jones —
Mrs. Simon —
Mary Jacob —
Mary Blended —
Anna Lee Jolly —
Lelia McGehee —

Afternoon — Lucia and Bill Williams —
Bill Williams —
Bill Williams —
Bill Williams —

Miss Williams was the greater general, Hamill or Cesta — My girl Blended

— My girl Blended

CASTORIA.

— The old King Louis

Signature of Castoria

BIG SPRING.

Kit Weymouth was here Friday with a line of samples.

He came to see the wife of James Norris on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clarkson went to Elizabethtown Sunday.

Dr. Strother went to Louisville last Sunday. Dr. John Meader Jr. was at Versailles last Sunday calling on Miss Carlton.

Rev. Garrett, of Louisville, preached here at the Baptist church Sunday.

Miss Z. Anna Strother after several hours in Louisville returned home Tuesday.

The roads are drying fast and it won't be long until we wear the coat again.

Mr. Penick, representing Water A. Wood Harvesting Company, spent Sunday here at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Avitt are once more with us. At Mr. and Mrs. Elizabethtown Sunday.

Dr. Strother went to Louisville last Sunday. Dr. J. W. Martin was at Versailles last Sunday calling on Miss Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hause visited their sister, Mrs. Hagan, of Nitlowton, last Saturday and Sunday.

Irvington is a busy town these days. What with our progressive merchants

Boils and Pimples Give Warning.

AN UNFAILING SIGN THAT NATURE IS APPEALING
FOR HELP.

must be gotten rid of; they are an urgent appeal for assistance

— warning that can not safely be ignored.

Time means more than the annoyance of painful boils and ugly pimples. If these impurities are allowed to remain, they will become chronic, and the person is unable to withstand the many ailments which are now prevalent during spring and summer.

Mrs. A. G. S. S. was afflicted for a long time with pimples, which were very annoying, as they disfigured my face fearfully.

After trying other remedies in vain, I sought advice of Dr. S. S. S., who told me that "It is good to have them here."

Books free to any address the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

is the best blood remedy, because it is purely vegetable and is the only one that is absolutely free from poisons and mercury. It promptly purifies the blood and thoroughly cleanses the system, builds up the general health and strength. It cures Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Tetters, Bed Sores, etc., by going direct to the cause of the trouble and forcing out all impure blood.

Books free to any address the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

to him all of our correspondents for their kind expressions of this column.

I heard one of our courageous young men say, "I don't care what other dealer may offer, I will buy a suit of clothes at the first tailor who will give me a good price." I am sure that all of our young men will do the same.

Invitations to the marriage of Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes of Louisville are received. A church wedding at Zion Grove, April 26th. Lena has in the past been my music teacher, and I am sure she will be a credit to the bride.

Miss Little Clarkson left for Elizabethtown, last Tuesday, to be present at the Montgomery-Darling wedding, which will be held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Louise Hough.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to 1 in favor in the home circles.

Jim Bonderup, Victor Spaulding, Lon Nevitt and Miss Lena Nevitt attended the church service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Anna Lee Jolly and Mr. George Hayes will be married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

Another letter came from Mr. E. H. Bushell, telling him that he will exhibit in the Fair at 10 to